Report- Green Rakhi Competition

On the occasion of upcoming festival “Raksha-Bandhan,” Department of Botany organized “Green Rakhi Competition” on dated 26th August 2023, on the combined theme “Food security, nutrition & sustainable agriculture, people & planet” with the permission of Hon’ble Principal Prof. M.P.Dhore. Dr.Sharayu S.Deshmukh Convener of this competition conducted the program. Co- convener, Dr. Rupali H. Mahakhode and other faculty members cooperated to make this competition grand success. In our environment different types of millets are found like Sorghum Millet (Jowar) Proso Millet (Chena), Pearl Millet (Bajra) Foxtail Millet (Kakum / Kangni) Finger Millet (Ragi) viz.& its important to our health Millet contains fiber, which contributes to digestive health and helps to regulate bowel movements. Millet also has probiotics, which stimulate the growth of probiotics within the microbiome. This is important for gut health and the immune system in general. Our Hon’ble Principal Prof. M.P.Dhore inaugurated this event. All the participants were rewarded with prizes & certificates. Consolation prizes were given to Avantika Srikant Mule and Soumya Yadav and third prize given to Janhvi Burde, second prize given to Rasika Patil and first prize given to Devendra Giri by the Principal.The Total 68 students were participated in this competition. Hon’ble Principal Prof..M.P.Dhore & Prof. R.N. Deshmukh, Head of Department appreciated & given noteworthy remarks.

ABOUT THEME

The combined theme for the International Year of Millets -2023 (IYM) & World Nature Conservation Day 2023 is "Food security, nutrition, sustainable agriculture, people and planet". Millets are a highly varied group of small-seeded widely grown around the world as cereal crops or grains for human food. Most species generally referred to as millets belong to the tribe Paniceae but some millets also belong to various other taxa. Raksha - Bandhan is a popular & traditionally Hindu annual festival. It is also celebrated in other parts of the world significantly influenced by Hindu culture.
