Empowering youth: Fostering nationalism and cleanliness

NCC cadets awarded for role in Puneet Sagar Abhiyan

LOKMAT NEWS NETWORK
 NAGPUR

It was not about who won what in this unique programme of beaming youngsters of National Cadet Corps (NCC) conducted at the Guards Regimental Centre auditorium at Kamptee on Thursday but more about being close to battle hardened and trained men in uniforms.

A feeling of nationalism pervaded the atmosphere as the cadets were honoured at the hands of General Officer Commanding Uttar Maharashtra and Gujarat Sub-area, Major General S K Vidyaarthy, AVSM, SM. The event was organised to mark social awareness and cleanliness activities conducted by NCC cadets throughout the year under the "Puneet Sagar Abhiyan". Various senior ranking Army officers, ANOs, military staff and 300 NCC Cadets participated in the programme. Activities under Puneet Sagar Abhiyan were conducted ed in sync with the Centre's vision voiced during the G20 presidency. Amritikal Mahotsav' and social responsibility mandate.

According to the defence ministry, a total of 3.4 lakh NCC Cadets have collected approximately six tonnes of plastic waste which has been reused for road construction under an MoU with NHAI. The NCC units and cadets of Nagpur Group undertook various activities like online quiz, ing competitions, awareness rally and campaigns regarding single use plastic. The objective was to reduce plastic use, conserve the environment and water bodies through institutions and public partnership drives and engage with citizens to sensitize them about the ills of plastic waste.

A prize distribution ceremony was also organised on this occasion to award students who excelled in the competitions.

initiative witnessed encouraging participation by the citizens who engaged in clearing water bodies chiefly the Pitala lake bank and the Ambazari lake area of plastics in various forms.

The NCC at a national level has collaborated with industry, academia and ITIs to recycle and utilise collected plastic waste. Cultural programmes, including group dance and group songs were presented by 4 Mah Bn NCC, Nagpur and 3 Mah Girls Bn NCC.
