Action Taken Report

In the wake of the Botany Subject Society Inaugural Program held on 29th March 2019, the Department of Botany has taken several initiatives to further capitalize on the event's success. We have organized regular meetings and activities for the Botany Subject Society to ensure ongoing engagement and academic development. A mentorship program has been introduced to provide students with guidance and support in their academic and career goals, inspired by the insights shared by Chief Guest Dr. Mahesh Fulwani. Additionally, we have enhanced recognition for meritorious students by increasing the scope of awards and incorporating feedback from the event to improve future programs. Efforts are also being made to foster greater interaction between students and professionals through guest lectures and workshops, aligning with the motivational guidance provided during the inaugural event.
