Action taken Report:

On 24 September 2019, the N.S.S. Day Celebration was successfully held at [Venue Name]. The event aimed to recognize the contributions of N.S.S. volunteers and foster a spirit of community service among students. The planning team, composed of faculty members and student volunteers, efficiently organized the event, including coordinating invitations, budgeting, and publicity. The celebration began with a welcome address and the national anthem, followed by inspiring speeches from guest speakers such as [Guest Speaker Names]. The program featured cultural performances, an awards ceremony to honor outstanding volunteers, and interactive workshops on community service. Despite some minor logistical challenges, such as delays with audio-visual equipment, the event saw an attendance of approximately [Number] participants. Feedback was largely positive, with attendees appreciating the engaging content and smooth execution, though there were suggestions for better audio-visual arrangements and earlier communication. The event effectively highlighted the importance of community service and encouraged student participation in the N.S.S. program. Moving forward, it is recommended to address the challenges identified, collect further feedback, and send thank you notes to all contributors. The celebration met its objectives and successfully promoted the values of community service among the attendees.
