Report

Birth Anniversary of Annabhau Sathe & Death Anniversary of Lokmanya

Tilak Report

Date: 01/08/2019

Time: 11:30 a.m.

Bal Gangadhar Tilak was born in Keshav Gangadhar Tilak on 23rd July 1856 and passed away on 1st August 1920. He was endeared as Lokmanya and was an Indian nationalist, teacher, and an independence activist. The British colonial authorities called him "The father of the Indian unrest". He was also conferred with the title of "Lokmanya", which means "accepted by the people as their leader". Tukaram Bhaurao Sathe that is popularly known as Annabhau Sathe was born on 1st August 1920, was a social reformer, folk poet, and writer from Maharashtra, India.

A floral tribute was paid to Annabhau Sathe on his birth anniversary and the Bal Gangadhar Tilak on his death anniversary in SSES's Science College, Congress Nagar, Nagpur. During this program all the teaching and non-teaching staff were also present in the college library during this program.

Action Taken Report

The event successfully paid homage to two iconic figures in Indian history. It provided an opportunity for the attendees to reflect on the values of nationalism, social reform, and the power of literature in shaping society. The commemoration of Bal Gangadhar Tilak's Death Anniversary and Annabhau Sathe's Birth Anniversary at SSES's Science College, Congress Nagar, Nagpur, was conducted with solemnity and respect. The program served as a reminder of the rich heritage and legacy left by these great leaders.
