Topic: “Lokmaharshi Dr. Panjabrao alias Bhausaheb Deshmukh: Transformation in the Agricultural Revolution.”

To commemorate the Silver Jubilee Birth Anniversary Year of Education Pioneer and Social Reformer Lokmaharshi Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh, a special lecture was organized at Bhonsala Military College, Rambhoomi, Nashik. The theme of the lecture was “Lokmaharshi Dr. Panjabrao alias Bhausaheb Deshmukh: Transformation in the Agricultural Revolution.”

The keynote speaker for the event was Hon. Dr. Panjab Ramkrishna Pundkar (Former Head of Department, Mahatma Phule College, Warud, Amravati). The session was presided over by Principal Dr. Dinesh Naik. The program began with a welcome address by Principal Dr. O. S. Deshmukh, who emphasized the significance of Dr. Deshmukh’s life and contributions.

In his detailed address, Dr. Pundkar shed light on the revolutionary changes brought about by Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh in the agricultural sector. He highlighted Dr. Deshmukh’s unwavering dedication to the farming community and his pioneering efforts that brought real transformation to rural India. He also recognized Dr. Deshmukh’s outstanding contributions to the welfare of the marginalized and underprivileged communities.

Principal Dr. Dinesh Naik, in his presidential address, spoke about Dr. Bhausaheb Deshmukh’s lifelong commitment to social welfare. He expressed hope that Dr. Deshmukh’s leadership and ideals would inspire students to lead a meaningful and purpose-driven life in the service of society.

At the conclusion of the event, Prof. R. Y. Deshmukh delivered the vote of thanks. He emphasized the importance of spreading Dr. Deshmukh’s progressive thoughts throughout the state of Maharashtra and thanked the college for the opportunity to host such a meaningful program. Dr. Gajanan Jadhav were also present for this program.

As part of the ceremony, a floral tribute was paid to the portrait of Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh. The college was also presented with a copy of the book “Loknayak Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh” and a framed portrait of Dr. Deshmukh as a token of respect and inspiration.

This lecture provided students with valuable insight into Dr. Deshmukh’s visionary ideas and served as a motivating force, encouraging them to contribute meaningfully to society.
