Women's Day and prize distribution ceremony of the essay competition in Shivaji College jointly organised by ICC, WRGC and Alumni Association

Date:16-March-2024

Time-11.30 am

A lecture was organized to mark Women's Day at Shivaji College of Science, Congress Nagar, Nagpur on 16th March 2024. Chief Guest Shomita Biswas (IFS), Chief Executive Officer of Maha Camp, she said women are proving their worth in various fields by making careers on par with men, but still leaving a feeling of depression in the minds of many women. Biswas narrated that we should start from our homes by thinking about how we should break the stereotype culture.

Prof. Yogita Meshram, convener of WRGC, Made introductory remarks. President Prof. M. P. Dhore, Chief guest Shomita Biswas, Convener of Alumni Association honoured the winners with a certificate and cash prizes. Dr. Rashmi Urkude, convener of ICC and Alumni Association said the essay competition was organized as a Social responsibility towards gender sensitization and to promote gender equality, to encourage unbiased perspectives on gender among students. The Alumni Association sponsored these prizes with the aim of promoting writing skills and sensitizing students toward gender equality.

No. Of beneficiaries: -87

Action Taken Report:

The event successfully raised awareness about gender equality and the mental health challenges women face in society. The essay competition saw active participation from students, which helped in developing their writing skills and sensitivity towards gender issues. The Alumni Association played an essential role in sponsoring the prizes and supporting the event, highlighting the strong connection between the alumni and the college community.

The Women's Day celebration and the prize distribution ceremony were successful in achieving the goals of promoting gender equality and encouraging students to challenge traditional stereotypes. The collaboration between the ICC, WRGC, and the Alumni Association demonstrated the college's commitment to social responsibility and student development.
