REPORT ON 'ELOCUTION COMPETITION' AT SHIVAJI SCIENCE COLLEGE:-

The department of languages conducted an Elocution competition on the topic 'Freedom of Speech: a Boon or a Bane' at Shivaji Science College, Nagpur. The program was organised at 11.00 AM on 9th January 2020 for the students of B.Sc. First year in the conference hall of the college under the guidance of Dr R. S. Dwivedi, Head dept. of English.

The program was inaugurated with lighting up of lamp and welcoming the guests on the dais. It was later followed by a welcoming speech offered by Ms Rasika Joshi. Principal Dr. Dhore sir became the chief guest of the program while Dr R. S. Dwivedi and Ms Arunima Rayalu were in the panel judging the contestants. All the contestants put forth their views on the topic eloquently. Some of them favoured the topic while others sitting on the other side expressed the opposite side. The competition successfully offered the positive and negative sides of the topic and likewise helped everyone to understand the advantage and disadvantage of freedom of speech in general also.

In total 18 students participated for the competition actively presenting their views.. Those who surpassed in presenting their strong views became the winners and were offered with the prices. All the faculty members from the department of languages including Dr R. S. Dwivedi, Dr Shubha Chandak, Ms Arunima Rayalu, Rasika Joshi and Seema Bahere worked collaboratively for the success of the competition.
